

2nd Annual Cedars-Sinai Intracranial Hypotension Symposium

13 October 2018 Program Agenda - Professional Track – Room 1

730 - 800 Registration & Breakfast

800 - 810	Opening remarks	Wouter I Schievink MD
810 - 840	Orthostatic headaches: differential diagnosis and diagnostic criteria of SIH	David Dodick MD
840 - 910	SIH: mechanisms of headache	Stephen Silberstein MD
910 - 940	SIH: the 1st 1000 patients: a practical approach	Wouter I Schievink MD

940 - 1000 Break & Exhibits

1000 - 1030	SIH: the Toronto experience	Philip Peng MBBS
1030 - 1100	SIH: CSF outflow resistance and other objective Measurements	Jurgen Beck MD PhD
1100 - 1130	SIH: ICP monitoring and other objective Measurements	Abhay Moghekar MD

1130 - 1230 Lunch Break & Exhibits

1230 - 100	Rebound intracranial hypertension	Deborah Friedman MD
100 - 130	Some unusual manifestations of SIH and how to avoid them	Wouter I Schievink MD
130 - 200	Imaging of SIH: past, current and future modalities	Marcel Maya MD
200 - 230	SIH and/or POTS	Ian Carroll MD MS

230 - 250 Break & Exhibits

250 - 310	10 myths and misconceptions	Peter G Kranz MD
310 - 330	Percutaneous treatment: Cedars-Sinai approach	Marcel Maya MD Charles Louy PhD MD
330 - 350	Percutaneous treatment: Duke approach	Linda Gray MD
350 - 420	Surgical expertise in SIH treatment	Jurgen Beck MD PhD

430 - 530 Room 1 – Plenary – all attendees

430 - 500	Persistent headache post-treatment – now what?	Stephen Silberstein MD David Dodick MD
500 - 525	Open discussion	All faculty
525 - 530	Closing remarks	Wouter I Schievink MD